- a) Canvassing councillors or the members of a committee or sub-committee, directly or indirectly, for appointment to or by the Council shall disqualify the candidate from such an appointment.
- b) A councillor or a member of a committee or sub-committee shall not solicit a person for appointment to or by the Council or recommend a person for such appointment or for promotion; but, nevertheless, any such person may give a written testimonial of a candidate’s ability, experience or character for submission to the Council with an application for appointment.

- c) This standing order shall apply to tenders as if the person making the tender were a candidate for an appointment.

20. Unauthorised Activities

- i. inspect any land and/or premises which the Council has a right or duty to inspect; or
- ii. issue orders, instructions or directions.

21. Confidential Business

- a) Councillors and employees shall not disclose information given in confidence or which they believe, or ought to be aware is of a confidential nature.
- b) A councillor in breach of the provisions of the above may be removed from a committee, a sub-committee, or a working group by a resolution of the Council or members of the appropriate committee, sub-committee or working group.

22. Power of Well-Being

- a) Before exercising the power to promote well-being, a meeting of the full Council shall have passed a resolution to confirm it has satisfied the prescribed statutory criteria required to qualify as an eligible parish council.
- b) The Council's period of eligibility begins on the date that the resolution under the above was made and expires on the day before the annual meeting of the Council that takes place in a year of ordinary elections.
- c) After the expiry of its preceding period of eligibility, the Council continues to be an eligible council solely for the purpose of completing any activity undertaken in the exercise of the power to promote well-being which was not completed before the expiry of the Council's preceding period of eligibility referred to in the above.

23. Matters Affecting Employees

- a) If a meeting considers any matter personal to a Council employee, it shall not be considered until the Council has resolved to exclude the press and public.
- b) A review of employee performance will be undertaken in line with contracts and any relevant policies.
- c) Any grievances and disciplinary matters will be dealt with in line with the Council's policy to that effect. If grievance or disciplinary matters involve any members of the Council, such members must declare an interest and abstain from participation.
- d) The Council shall keep written records relating to employees secure. All paper records shall be secured under lock and electronic records shall be password protected.

24. Freedom of Information Act / Data Protection Act

- a) All requests for information held by the Council shall be processed.
- b) Correspondence from, and notices served by, the Information Commissioner shall be referred by the Proper Officer to the Council.
- c) The Proper Officer shall take all legal steps to comply with the legislation.

SECTION 2 - CODE OF CONDUCT

1. ARRANGEMENTS FOR DEALING WITH ALLEGATIONS THAT A COUNCILLOR HAS FAILED TO COMPLY WITH THE RELEVANT CODE OF CONDUCT. LOCALISM ACT 2011 SECTION 28.

These arrangements are made under Sections 28(6) and (7) of the Localism Act 2011, and advise how the Town Council will deal with allegations that a Councillors has failed to comply with the relevant Code of Conduct.

An allegation that a Councillor has failed to comply with the requirements of the relevant Code of Conduct must be made to:

The Monitoring Officer, Lancaster City Council, Town Hall, Lancaster, LA1 1PJ.

An allegation may also be sent by email to the Monitoring Officer.

The allegation must be about a Town Councillor and must be that the Councillor(s) has, or may have, breached the relevant Code of Conduct.

Any person making an allegation should provide full details of the conduct complained of and how it is alleged to constitute a breach of the relevant Code of Conduct.

SECTION 3 - PROTOCOL ON COUNCILLOR/OFFICER RELATIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

- a) The purpose of this protocol is to guide Councillors and Officers in their relations with one another, to define their respective roles and to provide guidance for dealing with particular issues that may most commonly arise or cause concern.
- b) However, given the variety and complexity of such relations, this protocol does not seek to be either prescriptive or exhaustive. It is hoped that the general approach set out in the protocol will serve as a guide in dealing with other issues that may not be specifically covered.
- c) The objective of this protocol is to enhance and maintain the integrity of local government. As such, this protocol seeks to reflect the principles of the Code of Conduct.

2. ROLE OF COUNCILLORS AND OFFICERS

- a) Both Councillors and Officers are servants of the public and they are indispensable to one another, but their responsibilities are distinct. Councillors are responsible to the electorate and serve only so long as their term of office lasts. Officers are responsible to the Council as a whole, and they are accountable to the Chief Executive (Proper Officer). Their job is to give advice to Councillors and the Council, and to carry out the Council's work under the direction and control of the Council and the various Committees.
- b) The Council's Standing Orders set out the clear distinction between the roles of Councillors and Officers. Councillors will perform roles on the Council and Committees. They may also represent the Council on outside bodies. Officers are employed by and serve the whole Council, and are accountable to the Chief Executive (Proper Officer). They provide support, impartial advice, and implement the decisions of the Council and Committees. They may also make decisions under powers delegated to them.

- c) Councillors should not get involved in the day to day operational management of services. Equally, Officers should not get involved in politics.
- d) Officers are responsible for advising on and implementing policies, and for the delivery of services in the manner that they consider is most appropriate given their managerial and professional expertise. Councillors would not be expected to be involved in the detail of implementation, but can expect reports on progress, and in certain circumstances, can require Chief Officers (Proper Officer) to account for their decisions.
- e) It is appropriate, however, for Councillors to propose initiatives and ideas about how things can be done better. It is essential that existing ways of doing things are challenged and reviewed. This needs to be done in a professional and constructive environment. The Standing Orders sets out the procedures for the Council to review existing policies and bring forward new policy initiatives.
- f) Mutual respect between Councillors and Officers is essential to good local government. It is important in all dealings between Councillors and Officers that both should observe reasonable and consistent standards of courtesy and that neither party should seek to take advantage of their position. Close personal familiarity between individual Councillors and Officers can damage this relationship and prove embarrassing to other Councillors and Officers.
- g) The general obligations in the Councillors' Code of Conduct include a requirement to treat others with respect, and not to do anything which compromises or is likely to compromise the impartiality of those who work for or on behalf of the Council. There is also a requirement for Councillors in making decisions to have regard to any advice provided by the Council's Chief Executive (Proper Officer) and Responsible Financial Officer. Any allegation by an Officer that a Councillor has failed to comply with the Code of Conduct will be dealt with under the procedure for dealing with Code of Conduct complaints.

3. OFFICER ADVICE TO COUNCILLORS AND GROUPS OF COUNCILLORS

- a) It is common practice for Councillors and political groups to give preliminary consideration to matters of Council business in advance of such matters being considered. As an example, agendas will identify the key decisions the Council (or Committee) will be considering. Individual Councillors and/or groups of Councillors may properly call upon Officers to support and provide factual advice to their deliberations. The support provided by Officers can take many forms, ranging from a briefing meeting prior to a meeting, to a presentation to a full group meeting. Briefing of political groups should only be undertaken by the Chief Executive (Proper Officer), or otherwise with the approval of the Chief Executive (Proper Officer) and any information provided to the group will not as a matter of routine be passed on to other groups or individual councillors. However, briefing information provided to a political group, whether or not it contains confidential information, may, at the written request of that group, be passed on by the relevant Officer to other groups also.
- b) Certain points must, however, be clearly understood by all those participating in this type of process, Councillors and Officers alike. In particular:
 - i) Officer support in these circumstances must not extend beyond providing information and advice in relation to matters of Council business. Officers must not be involved in advising on matters of a 'political' nature. Officers are not expected to be present at meetings, or parts of meetings, where matters of political business are to be discussed.
 - ii) Similarly, where Officers provide information and advice to a group of Councillors meeting in relation to a matter of Council business, this cannot act as a substitute for providing all necessary information and advice to the Council meeting when the matter in question is considered.

- c) Officers must respect the confidentiality of any group discussions at which they are present in the sense that they should not relay the content of any such discussion to another group of Councillors, unless specifically asked to do so.
- d) Any particular cases of difficulty or uncertainty in this area of Officer advice to groups of Councillors should be raised with the Chief Executive (Proper Officer).

4. OFFICER/COUNCILLOR RELATIONSHIPS

- a) It is clearly important that there should be a close working relationship between Councillors and Officers. However, such relationships should never be allowed to become so close, or appear to be so close, as to bring into question an Officer's ability to deal impartially with other Councillors.
- b) Whilst the Chairman of the Council and Chairmen of Committees may routinely be consulted as part of the process of drawing up agenda items for a forthcoming meeting, it must be recognised that in some situations an Officer will consider it his/her duty to submit a report on a particular matter. In these circumstances, an Officer will always be fully responsible for the contents of any report and/or recommendation submitted in his/her name.
- c) In relation to action between Council or Committee meetings, it is important to remember that the Council's Standing Orders allow only for decisions (relating to the discharge of any of the Council's functions) to be taken by an Officer.
- d) It must be remembered that Officers in employment are accountable to their line manager and ultimately the Chief Executive (Proper Officer), and that whilst Officers should always seek to assist any Councillor, they must not, in doing so, go beyond the bounds of whatever authority they have been given by their line manager.

5. UNDUE PRESSURE

- a) A Councillor must not apply undue pressure on an Officer to do anything which he/she is not empowered to do, or which is against the Officer's professional judgement, or to undertake work outside normal duties or normal hours.
- b) Similarly, an Officer must not seek to influence an individual Councillor to make a decision in his/her favour, nor raise personal matters relating to his/her job, nor make claims or allegations about other Officers, except in accordance with any agreed Council procedure or in accordance with law. Councillors who receive any such approach from an Officer should advise the Chief Executive (Proper Officer) immediately.

6. CRITICISM/COMPLAINTS

- a) It is important that there should be mutual courtesy between Councillors and Officers.
- b) Councillors and Officers should not criticise or undermine respect for each other at Council meetings or at any other meeting they attend in their capacity as a Councillor or Officer, or in any other public forum.
- c) Councillors should not raise matters relating to the conduct or capability of an individual Officer or Officers collectively at meetings or in any other public forum. Any such complaints should be made to the Chief Executive (Proper Officer).

7. COUNCILLORS' ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND TO COUNCIL DOCUMENTS

- a) If Councillors wish to visit Officers, they should make prior arrangements whenever possible.

- b) With respect to the legal rights of Councillors to inspect Council documents, these are covered partly by statute and partly by the common law.
- c) Under Section 100F of the Local Government Act 1972, any Councillor may inspect any document in the possession or control of the Council which contains material relating to any business to be transacted at a meeting of the Council or a Committee. This right applies irrespective of whether the Councillor is a member of the relevant committee, and extends not only to reports but also to background papers. However, the right does not apply if a document discloses exempt information as defined in Schedule 12A of the Local Government Act 1972.
- d) The common law right of Councillors is much broader and is based on the principle that any Councillor has a prima facie right to inspect council documents so far as his/her access to the documents is reasonably necessary to enable the Councillor to carry out his/her duties as a Councillor. This is referred to as the “need to know” principle. If a Councillor is a member of a Committee, then he/she has the right to inspect documents relating to the business of that Committee. If a Councillor is not a member of the relevant Committee, then he/she has to demonstrate why sight of the document is necessary to enable the performance of his/her duties as a Councillor. Councillors have no right to a “roving commission” to examine documents of the Council. Mere curiosity is not sufficient. If the Councillor’s motive for seeing the documents is indirect, improper or ulterior, then there would be no right of access at common law.
- e) A Councillor has the same rights of access to information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 as any members of the public. A request must be made in writing and describe specifically the information requested. The exemptions set out in the Act would be applied whoever is requesting the information. Once information has been made available in response to a Freedom of Information request, it become public.
- f) From a procedural point of view, if a Councillor makes a request for information that is not routine, the request should be made to the relevant Officer, who will consider first whether all the information would be made available as a matter of course to a member of the public making a similar request. If so, the information will be provided to the Councillor.
- g) If the request is such that the information would not automatically be provided to a member of the public, the Officer will consider whether the information can be provided under Section 100F of the Local Government Act 1972 or under the common law “need to know”. The final determination as to whether there is a “need to know” will be made by the Proper Officer.
- h) If neither Section 100F nor the “need to know” are met, then the request will be dealt with as a Freedom of Information Act request, but without the need for the Councillor to make a specific Freedom of Information request. The Freedom of Information Request will be dealt with in the normal way by an Officer. This may result in the information being provided in part, with an exemption applying to the remainder, or the request being refused in its entirety as a result of an exemption. The Councillors will be informed that the request has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act and that there is a right of internal review which will be carried out by the Proper Officer. Following such review, the Councillor will be advised of the right to pursue the matter with the Information Commissioner.
- i) Any information provided under the Freedom of Information Act can be made public by the Councillor. Information provided under the “need to know” will be provided with the caveat that it is provided to the Councillor in his/her capacity as Councillor, and is only to be used for the purpose of exercising his/her functions, and should not be made public.
- j) The Code of Conduct provides that a Councillor must not disclose information given to the Councillor in confidence by anyone, or information which the Councillor believes, or ought reasonably to be aware, is of a confidential nature except where:
 - i) the Councillor has the consent of a person authorised to give it;

- ii) the Councillor is required by law to do so;
- iii) the disclosure is made to a third party for the purposes of obtaining professional advice provided that the third party agrees not to disclose the information to any other person; or
- iv) the disclosure is reasonable and in the public interest and made in good faith and in accordance with the law.

8. CORRESPONDENCE

- a) Correspondence between an individual Councillor and an Officer should not normally be copied (by the Officer) to any other Councillor. Where exceptionally it is necessary to copy the correspondence to another Councillor, this should be made clear to the original Councillor.
- b) Official letters on behalf of the Council should normally be sent out in the name of the appropriate Officer, rather than in the name of a Councillor. It may be appropriate in certain circumstances (e.g representations to a Government Minister) for a letter to appear over the name of a Councillor, but this should be the exception rather than the norm. Letters which, for example, create obligations or give instructions on behalf of the Council should never be sent out in the name of a Councillor.
- c) In no circumstances will correspondence from an individual or business, or from a third party representing an individual, be disclosed to a Councillor if it is marked confidential or contains personal data. If, in these circumstances, an Officer is of the view that there is a need for a Councillor to know the issue, and it is not possible to do so in general terms without disclosing confidential or personal information, then the relevant individual's consent will first be obtained.

9. MEETINGS WITH THIRD PARTIES

- a) On occasions, Councillors may be approached by individuals or companies who have proposals affecting the area or functions of the Council, and which they wish to discuss with Councillors. Councillors are reminded that, as individual Councillors, they cannot commit the Council to any contract or other agreement or course of action. Councillors are advised to make this clear to any third party with which they may have contact. Should Councillors be asked to attend a meeting with third parties, they are recommended to arrange for the meeting to take place at Council officers and with a relevant Officer present. This will enable the Officer to explain to the third party the proper decision-making process, and will protect Councillors against any subsequent claim by the third party. Normal routine activities are not intended to be subject to this recommendation.

10. ARBITRATION

- a) This protocol is intended to act as a guide for both Councillors and Officers.
- b) This protocol is intended to provide Councillors and Officers with guidelines to determine their roles and their relations with each other.
- c) It is intended to be a "live" document and will be reviewed from time to time to reflect changing circumstances and legislation.

SECTION 4 - MEDIA PROTOCOL

1. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- a) The long-term aim of the Council's communications strategy is to build and maintain a positive reputation for Morecambe Town Council in the eyes of the public, its Councillors and Officers as well as key partners in the public, private and voluntary sectors.

- b) In order to achieve this aim a key area of focus is the local media.
- c) The local media plays a key role in informing residents about what the Council does and how it spends their money. In return, it is important the Town Council communicates effectively with this key provider of public information.
- d) In doing so the Council's objectives are as follows:
 - i) enable the Council to be one which is open, accountable, accessible and which listens;
 - ii) give information about the Council's policies and services and the democratic process so people feel more informed about the work of the Council;
 - iii) build up the Council's role as a community leader and advocate for the community;
 - iv) handle negative issues clearly and decisively. Where it is felt criticism of the Council is unfair, the Council should use opportunities available to explain, either to the editors or to the readers/listeners. In cases where the Council is wrong, the Council should address how it is addressing the issue.

2. CO-ORDINATING MEDIA ENQUIRIES

- a) The Council should ensure that local residents are informed about the Council's policies and decisions. It must be open and transparent in its dealings with the press.
- b) Officers of the Council will liaise with media, receive enquiries, and respond to enquiries.
- c) Where the journalist approaches a Councillor for a quote, the Councillor must ensure journalists are reminded that any opinion given is that of their own and not necessarily that of the Council as a corporate body.
- d) Officers of the Council will release regular press releases to the media and invite the media to any press launches or photo opportunities.
- e) If Officers or Councillors are approached by the media prior to a decision being made by the Council it is important for any statement given not to prejudge the decision. Comments should be limited to providing information rather than anticipating an outcome or expressing a view as to a preferred outcome from the meeting. It is appropriate for Officers to issue a statement outlining a summary of the matter. In this way reporters will be more likely to use the statement to report an accurate summary of the matter or clarify an issue.
- f) The Council should make every effort to correct inaccurate reporting of Council issues.
- g) It is acceptable for Councillors to request an Officer considers producing a press release relating to their role. However, Officers should not produce or engage in any promotion for Councillors on individual party political issues.
- h) All Council press releases will carry the crest of Morecambe Town Council. When issuing a press release with a third party, it may also be appropriate to include their logo and/or crest.
- i) When drafting press releases or selecting photographs, all Officers should be mindful of the Council's Equal Opportunities Policy. Publicity should avoid stereotyping of roles and should demonstrate the Council's commitment to providing equality of opportunities to people of any gender, race, sexual orientation, religion or disability.
- j) Occasionally 'confidential' Council items may be 'leaked' to the media. The Council will not normally offer a comment on leaked or confidential items. However, if an item which is not 'confidential', but which has yet to enter the public forum, it may be appropriate for the Council to issue a comment. Each case will be judged individually.

3. PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES

- a) Where photo opportunities arise, the relevant Councillors will be invited.
- b) However, the goal is to achieve positive publicity for the Council as a whole and therefore some degree of flexibility is necessary in order to achieve that goal.
- c) Photographic opportunities often arise at short notice. By needing to contact the relevant Councillors to arrange a time when all can be present, there are times when a photo opportunity, and therefore positive publicity, may be lost.
- d) All press and media will be allowed to film and record meetings of the Council which are open to the press and public.
